

Quena Shop :: Quena Educci & Edushak Shakuhachi

The Educci

For 3 years now we have been offering the Quena Educci. The Quena Educci was designed by Martin Niethammer. He used the most modern precision techniques, in order to construct one of the eldest flutes in the world in the most modern form.

This Quena has been received with enthusiasm by professional and beginner musicians. Meanwhile the Educci Quena has its firm place in the German-speaking countries.

The Educci offers now:

- one-piece Quena flutes
- tunable Quena flutes
- Transverse flute heads with an Educci Quena mouthpiece
- High-quality Quenas from Granadil, olive, and pear wood

The Edushak Shakuhachi

This website is proud to introduce the sister flute of the Educci Quena named the Edushak.

The Edushak uses the technology with which the Educci was built, in order to bring a further ethnical instrument inexpensive and with highest quality on the market - the Shakuhachi-Edushak.

The Edushak is an outstanding professionally tuned Shakuhachi on D, which is affordable and easy to play.
